

--

The research group of the chemistry Department develops all the Projects; in the research group there are many employees, and each employee is paid for each project in wich he works. I suppose that the RetentionApplied for the Partners is a fixed tax depending of each Partner.